1. Plaintiff also asserts supplemental state law claims.

VENUE

4. Venue is properly laid in the Eastern District of New York under 28 U.S.C. §

1391(b), in that this is the District in which the claim arose.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff BRANDON TUCK is a twenty-nine year old African American man residing in Staten Island, New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants, NYPD Officers TIMOTHY LAKE, KIMBERLY MCKNIGHT, ANTHONY MEI, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On October 24, 2012, at approximately 12:00 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully inside of 142 Brabant Street, Staten Island, New York, when defendant NYPD officers, believed to include TIMOTHY LAKE, KIMBERLY MCKNIGHT, and ANTHONY MEI, stopped and questioned him as to his presence in the building.

13. Plaintiff explained that he was there to visit Ralph Williams, who lived at 142 Brabant Street, Apartment 3D.

14. The defendant officers did nothing to confirm plaintiff's lawful presence in the building.

15. Instead, the defendant officers placed plaintiff in handcuffs, and searched and arrested him without probable cause.

16. The defendant officers imprisoned plaintiff in a police vehicle and transported plaintiff to the NYPD's 120th precinct stationhouse and imprisoned him therein.

17. The defendant officer imprisoned plaintiff until October 25, 2012 when plaintiff was arraigned in Richmond County Criminal Court on baseless charges filed under docket number 2012RI009641; said charges having been filed based on the false and manufactured allegations sworn to by defendant LAKE that plaintiff had purportedly trespassed at 142 Brabant Street, Staten Island, New York.

18. The defendants initiated said prosecution with malice, and otherwise caused said prosecution to be commenced against plaintiff for collateral objectives, to wit: for professional advancement, to meet quotas, for overtime compensation, and/or other objectives outside the ends of justice.

19. The defendant officers created and manufactured false evidence against plaintiff and used same against him in said legal proceeding. Specifically, defendant LAKE conveyed false allegations to the Richmond County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff had trespassed at 142 Brabant, when in fact plaintiff was lawfully present in the building as an invited guest.

20. As a result of the malicious prosecution, plaintiff was compelled to return to court on numerous occasions until July 8, 2013, on which date all of the charges filed against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed.

21. Defendant ANTHONY MEI, who holds the rank of sergeant, supervised defendants TIMOTHY LAKE and KIMBERLY MCKNIGHT, and was present for, participated in, and otherwise approved of, oversaw and failed to intervene to stop plaintiff's false arrest.

22. Defendants TIMOTHY LAKE, KIMBERLY MCKNIGHT, ANTHONY MEI, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10 either directly participated in the above conduct or failed to intervene, despite a reasonable opportunity to do so.

23. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, a practice of falsification, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising of its employees, and in particular insufficiently training officers with regard to the investigation of suspected trespassers, and due to discrimination against plaintiff based on his race pursuant to constitutionally flawed trespass and/or stop and frisk enforcement policies.

24. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK'S Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers are insufficiently trained regarding the investigation of trespassers and unlawfully arrest individuals who are lawfully present in buildings which they have contracts to patrol, disproportionately stop individuals due to discrimination against them based on their race and/or nationality, and engage in a practice of falsification to cover up their abuse of authority.

25. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiff's civil rights.

26. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

27. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff BRANDON TUCK sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
